Suratul-Qadr is number 97, revealed in Makkah and has 5 ayahs. Suratul-Qadr gets its name from the first ayah which mentions "Laylatul-Qadr" (i.e. The Night of Power/Decree). It is about the most important night of the year. This blessed night is in the holy month of Ramadan. Laylatul-Qadr is very important to all Muslims because of its many blessings and rewards. The Holy Quran was sent down in this night.

The Messenger of Allah (P.B.U.H) told us to search (stay awake and worship) for this night in the odd number nights, in the last ten days of Ramadan (21st, 23rd, 25th, 27th or 29th). In this night Allah (S.W.T) showers His Mercy upon His faithful believers and forgives those who ask Him. Worship during this night is better than the worship performed for a thousand months, 84 years.

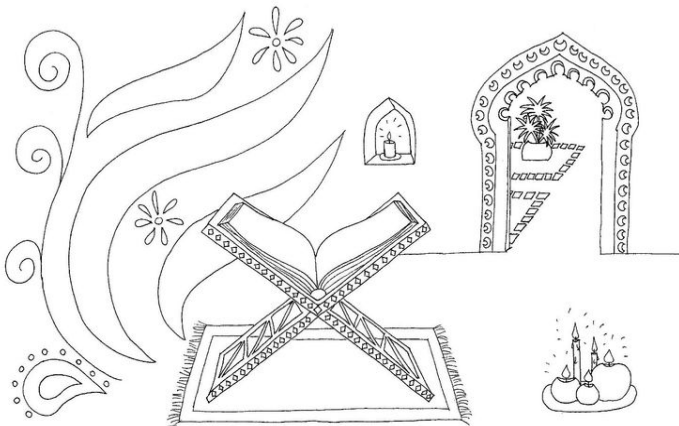

During Laylatul Qadr, angel Jibril (AS) comes to earth with a large number of angels who ask Allah for forgiveness for those believers who spend their night remembering and worshipping Allah. Some ways to spend this night is to recite lots of Qur'an, do nafil salahs, remember Allah more (dhikr) and make lots of du'as and ask for forgiveness. Aisha (Rd) asked Prophet (PBUH) once, what she should ask from Allah if she finds the Night. Prophet (PBUH) advised her to make this dua: "O Allah! Verily, You are the Most forgiving, You love to forgive, so do forgive me."

Another name for this night is the Night of Decree/Destiny. This is because in this night, Allah (S.W.T) orders the angels to write down all that is in people's destiny for the coming year. Everyone's age, death, food, rain and other matters are recorded in detail by the angels to be completed from this Ramadan to the next.
